

Trucking is PSD template created for logistics, trucking, transportation companies and small freight business. It comes with wide range of homepage layouts that will fit any transportation industry size. Whether your company handles air freight, ocean freight, whole supply chain management, overland network or all of that together, you'll certainly find a layout that will fit your needs. We have investigated a wide range of websites from this industry to insure we have all needed design options and features covered. In this PSD you'll find quite interesting design elements, like logistics network map, vehicle fleet page, events page, company history, online driver job application form, request a quote that is smartly incorporated into contact us page, vector trucking icons that are used for services and some lists that are included within this file and many, many more nice options.